UM FOREIGN STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT STATE GOVERNMENT

MISSOULA--

A group of foreign students at the University of Montana will travel to Helena Friday, Jan. 27, to learn about state government.

The students will be briefed by Gov. Ted Schwinden; David Wanzenried, executive assistant to the governor; and Dennis Taylor, head of the State Personnel Division.

They will also meet with Justice John Harrison of the Montana Supreme Court and will tour the Montana Historical Museum.

Thomas Payne and Peter Koehn, UM political science professors, will accompany the students to Helena.

The visit is part of a UM series of field trips funded in part by the Cooperative Projects Program of the National Association for Foreign Student Affairs. The purpose of the program is to enhance the experience of foreign students attending U.S. colleges and universities.
